WILDLIFE TRAVEL

more than just a wildlife holiday: discover a new world

Welcome to Wildlife Travel!

We were set up in 1988, to support nature conservation, to promote ecotourism, and to provide educational natural history holidays. Our first holiday was a trip to Crete to look for spring flowers, and we've not looked back since. We are extremely proud of our holidays and believe that a Wildlife Travel trip is different to any other. However, there are many travel companies out there organising holidays to wonderful parts of the world. So why should you travel with us? What makes Wildlife Travel different?

Travel with us and support conservation

Our conservation credentials aren't just a case of 'green wash': nature conservation is at the core of our business. We are conservationists first, travellers second. Wildlife Travel was set up with the express aim of supporting nature conservation. Our profits are donated to The Wildlife Trusts to support their work here in the UK. We also make sure that, wherever possible, we work directly with nature conservation organisations at our destinations to support their projects.

Our leaders

Our leaders and local guides all have conservation backgrounds and, between them, have a wealth of natural history knowledge, from birds and butterflies to botany and bats. Of course, they don't just provide natural history expertise: our leaders also ensure that you have a safe, enjoyable and relaxing time. We pay special attention to planning so that each trip is well researched and well organised. We always use good accommodation, enjoy great local food and take things at a relaxed pace... after all, it is supposed to be a holiday!

Our travellers

A Wildlife Travel holiday is ideal for anyone who wants some amenable company, wonderful wildlife, an insight into the local culture, and the knowledge that they are supporting conservation. One of the most rewarding things over the years of running our holidays has been the friendships developed when sharing our travels, between leaders, Wildlife Travellers and local guides. We are very grateful to, and proud of, the high number of 'repeat travellers', many of whom travel with us every year. Most of our travellers are recommended by friends.

....and then there's the wildlife!

WILDLIFE TRAVEL

wildlife and culture holidays

27 years travelling for wildlife

Our holidays are aimed at those who enjoy general wildlife as well as specific interests, and who want a relaxed pace, comfortable travel, good company and a look at conservation and culture, whilst not missing out on the wildlife highlights!

Please ask us for the full details of any trip or check our website. The holiday leaflet for each trip gives the complete itinerary, accommodation, transport, leader, flight (or train/ferry) details and confirms what the price includes.
