

Trustee nominations

Jolyon Austin

Jolyon Austin was co-opted onto the Board of Trustees in July 2023. He has been a management consultant for over 22 years with Ernst & Young and Accenture; prior to that he worked in supply chain operations for eight years and started his career with the Royal Engineers.

Jolyon enjoys exploring the local area and its diverse spaces and habitats. He is married with two children and lives in the Chilterns with their two dogs. He is a keen gardener and has been to every continent including Antarctica, where he fell in love with the penguins!

Garth Clark

Garth Clark was appointed to be a Trustee at BBOWT in December 2022. He has worked on estates in Buckinghamshire, the Cotswolds, Kent, Somerset and Scotland, building on his formative years in practical agriculture. Garth's current appointment is with the Althorp Estate in Northamptonshire, supporting Lord and Lady Spencer to enhance and nurture the aesthetics and conservational value of the historic estate. His farming background and organic experience has given him a unique conservation perspective, combining commercial farming and land management, with a strong environmental respect and appreciation of natural capital.

Garth has two daughters who both share his love for the great outdoors and he lives in a converted lorry, which he intends to drive down the Pan-American Highway.
