

Volunteer Role Outline

Role title
Field Team Volunteer
Based at location
Warburg Nature Reserve nr Henley
Purpose of the role
To contribute to the delivery of planned skilled practical work as part of a small, self-led team at Warburg Nature Reserve.
Type of work in which you will be involved
Habitat management using skills including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Operating a chainsaw for various tasks including felling trees and hedgerow management. • Operating a brushcutter for various tasks including grassland management, path maintenance and scrub control. • Maintenance and construction of site infrastructure including gateways, hides, fences, footpaths and signage. • Maintenance and upkeep of tools and machinery • You will need to be able to work closely as a small team, often with limited staff supervision. • Occasional work with livestock
Experience &/or qualifications needed
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Driving licence • Aptitude for skilled practical work • A team player who can work effectively as part of a self-led team • Good communication skills • Ability to follow instructions accurately • Good attention to detail • A willingness to attend training courses and develop practical skills • A willingness to use power tools, trailers and 4x4 vehicles • Ability to carry out often physically demanding and repetitive work in all weathers • Ability and willingness to demonstrate the BBOWT behaviours and values

Times/days we would like you to be available

Every other Thursday ideally (open to discussion about time commitments or possible other days)

Benefits to volunteer & possible training opportunities

- Externally accredited training in First Aid, chainsaw operation and 4x4 off-road driving.
- In-house BBOWT training on using brushcutters, trailers and other tools and machinery as required.
- The chance to work in a small, dedicated team and help deliver vital habitat restoration work across Warburg Nature Reserve.
- Work closely with the land management team to deliver plans and gain a deeper understanding of the work we do.
- Make a valuable contribution to BBOWT's mission and help support local wildlife conservation

You will be responsible to

Warburg Reserve Warden

Expenses payable

Limited travel expenses available and PPE provided.

References, interview, or DBS check

Informal interview required.

